4. Cookies and Browser Storage

The Store may use cookies, session technologies, local storage, and similar browser technologies to keep you signed in, remember shopping preferences, maintain essential functionality, improve performance, and support security. Some locally stored information remains on your device until you clear your browser data.

5. Cloud and Cross-Device Synchronization

To provide a consistent shopping experience across devices, product catalog and application data may be processed through our backend, database, cloud infrastructure, or serverless services. This allows authorized store data to be synchronized rather than remaining only on one customer's or administrator's device.

6. Payment Providers

Payments may be processed through third-party payment providers such as Razorpay, PhonePe, Paytm, banks, UPI providers, or other payment services supported by the Store. These providers may independently process payment information under their own terms and privacy policies. We recommend reviewing the applicable provider's policy.

7. When We Share Information

We do not sell customer personal information as a standalone product. We may share information with service providers that help operate the Store, including hosting/infrastructure providers, payment processors, delivery and logistics providers, communication services, security providers, technical service providers, and professional advisers.

Information may also be disclosed when required by law, legal process, court order, governmental authority, fraud investigation, security requirement, or to protect the rights and safety of the Store, customers, or others.

8. Data Security

We use reasonable technical and organizational safeguards intended to protect personal information from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, loss, and misuse. However, no website, database, network, or electronic transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Customers should protect their passwords, devices, and account credentials and should contact us promptly if they suspect unauthorized account activity.

9. Data Retention

We retain information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide services, maintain transaction and business records, resolve disputes, prevent fraud, enforce agreements, and comply with applicable legal obligations. Different categories of information may have different retention periods.

10. Your Privacy Choices and Rights

Subject to applicable law, you may request access to, correction of, deletion of, or information about the personal data we hold about you. You may also have rights to object to or restrict certain processing and to withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.

Some information may need to be retained for legal, security, accounting, fraud-prevention, or legitimate business purposes. We may request reasonable verification before completing a privacy request.

11. Children's Privacy

The Store may sell or display clothing for children, but the website is not intended to knowingly collect personal information directly from children without appropriate authorization. If you believe a child has provided personal information improperly, please contact us so we can review the situation.

12. Third-Party Websites

The Store may contain links or integrations to third-party websites and services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices, security, or content of third parties. Their own privacy policies apply to information they collect.

13. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy when our services, technology, business practices, or legal requirements change. The updated policy will be published on the website with a revised effective date. Continued use of the Store after an update may constitute acceptance of the revised policy to the extent permitted by applicable law.

14. Contact Us

For privacy questions, data requests, complaints, or concerns, please contact Fashion Store through the official customer-support or contact channel published on our website.
